

About Dr. Rajiv Shah

- First foot and ankle surgeon of India
- Established first ever foot and ankle centre of India
- Launched first ever foot and ankle website from India
- Advanced foot and ankle fellowships under world renowned foot and ankle surgeons like Dr. Thomas Lee, Dr. Greg Berlet and Dr. Weil at Columbus, USA and Chicago, USA.
- Executive council member, Global Foot & Ankle Community
- Vice chairman, Asia Pacific Foot & Ankle Society (Chapter of APOA)
- South Asia Coordinator & International advisory board member, Foot Innovate international webinar
- President, Indian foot and ankle society (2014-15)

- National chairman, Indo-US foot and ankle courses(2009 onwards)
- Co-chairman, Parekh African foot and ankle courses(2014 onwards)
- Member, editorial board, Journal of Asia-pacific foot and ankle society
- Reviewer for foot and ankle section for four indexed medical journals
- Successfully carried out more than 3000 foot and ankle surgeries on patients from India and from other countries like USA, UK, Gulf countries, African Countries and SAARC countries.
- Authored chapters in nine books
- Foot & ankle section editor for 'Textbook of orthopaedics & Traumatology' by Indian Orthopaedic Association
- Own book titled 'Handbook of foot and ankle orthopaedics' published by Thieme publications received 'Best Orthopaedic Book Award' for year 2014-15
- Delivered more than 150 podium presentations in international and national foot and ankle meetings
- Only Indian foot and ankle surgeon who as an invited guest speaker delivered many scientific presentations at international platform in countries like USA, Canada, China, South Korea and Mauritius
- 18 publications and research paper presentations

- Own classification on 'Calcaneus Malunion' being used widely across the world
- Trained and mentored many young and upcoming orthopaedic surgeons in the field of foot and ankle by fellowships, workshops and courses