

Kartik Hariharan is the Clinical Lead for a large Foot And Ankle Centre of Excellence working for the Aneurin Bevan University Health Board in Newport South Wales United Kingdom.

He is internationally known in the world of foot and ankle surgery. He was the President of the British Orthopaedic Foot and Ankle Society in 2011-2012 after serving as Chairman of Education for the society. He is the Trustee of that organisation now.

He is also the Chairman of the Clinical Commissioning group for foot and ankle surgery for the Royal College of Surgeons and the Dept of Health.

He has been a specialist Advisor for the National Institute of Clinical Excellence.

He is well known for his lectures both nationally and internationally and featured in a BBC production 'Dissected: The Incredible Human Foot'.

In 2015 he was awarded the prestigious eponymous Naughton Dunn Lecture by the British Orthopaedic Association.

He is also the proud recipient of the Ram Janam Sulakshana Pandey Oration

He has recently been awarded the prestigious Sir Rowland Hughes Memorial Oration by the Welsh Orthopaedic Society

He has recently been appointed the Clinical Lead for Patient Reported Outcomes for the Aneurin Bevan University Health Board South Wales.

He is the Foot and Ankle Surgeon for the Newport Gwent Dragons, Newport County Football Club and the Newport Cricket club.